Meet the new SUAA president

Growing up in Central New York, Mark Verone '95 always had plenty of Orange pride. Now he's thrilled to be assuming a new role, leading the Syracuse University Alumni Association (SUAA) Board of Directors starting July 1. "This year marks 20 years since my graduation from Syracuse. While many things have changed on campus and in our lives, careers, and the world, the one thing that ties us all together is our common Orange bond," he says. Read more.

In the News

Happy Anniversary, SU in DC!

On March 24, DC-area alumni and friends enjoyed an extra-special National Orange Day celebration, commemorating 25 years of Greenberg House and Syracuse's presence in the Capital region! See photos.

Immersion Week 2015 highlights

During spring break, SU in DC hosted one of its signature programs—DC Immersion Week—in which 20 Syracuse University sophomores experienced living and working around Washington and Baltimore. The packed schedule included corporate, government, and nonprofit site visits, stops at several museums and cultural centers, and opportunities to network with prominent DC alumni. See photos.

SU alum awarded Medal of Honor

President Barack Obama has posthumously bestowed the Medal of Honor, the U.S. military's highest decoration for valor, on Sergeant William Shemin, a World War I veteran and 1924 graduate of the New York State College of Forestry at Syracuse University. President Obama presented the medal to Shemin's daughters on June 2 in Washington. Read more.
