

REPORTING FROM

DC

DC.SYR.EDU

Issue 03 | September 21, 2015

Join us!

It's almost time for Orange Central!

Has it been a while since you visited the Syracuse campus? Come back for Orange Central—the homecoming celebration of the year! The event schedule is packed with fun activities for alumni and friends of all ages. Get details.

ORANGE CENTRAL HOMECOMING 2015

OCTOBER 19-25
WELCOME, ALUMNI! OCTOBER 22-25

Special feature

In The Loop discussion series

SU in DC's popular discussion series returns this fall! These informal sessions offer opportunities for current students and Generation Orange graduates to interact with respected alumni, learn about industry trends, and gain insight on positioning themselves to be sought-after professionals. See the schedule.

In the News

Shalala named Arents Award winner

Donna Shalala G'70, H'87, president and CEO of the Clinton Foundation and on leave as the Trustee Professor of Political Science and Health Policy at the University of Miami, has been named a 2015 recipient of the George Arents Award—Syracuse University's highest alumni honor. Shalala will receive the award for Excellence in Public Service and Education October 23 during Orange Central Homecoming. Read more.

SUccess in the City photo gallery!

On June 17, DC alumni and friends welcomed the newest class of Syracuse graduates to the region at SUccess in the City. See photos.

A new face at the Smithsonian National Portrait Gallery

Kate Lemay '01 recently joined the Smithsonian National Portrait Gallery as an art historian, researching and evaluating pieces for the gallery. Read Lemay's interview with The Daily Orange, discussing her exciting new job and reflecting on her SU experience.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY | WASHINGTON, DC

Greenberg House, 2301 Calvert Street, NW, Washington, DC 20008