How did SU shape you?

MAKE YOUR MARK.

Take a moment to think about all the ways your SU experience shaped your life. Today's students have, and they've shown their appreciation. Now they're challenging you to do the same.

Watch your email tomorrow to learn how you can make your mark!

Join fellow SU alumni and friends at Nationals Park for an early-season weeknight game between rivals—the National League champion New York Mets and the hometown favorite Washington Nationals. Be one of the first 25,000 in attendance and you'll receive a Max Scherzer bobblehead commemorating one of his two no-hitters from last year. Get details.

Join us for Career Days

June 20–22, 2016

Greenberg House

2301 Calvert Street NW

Washington, DC

Calling all current Syracuse students, parents, and Generation Orange alumni—Greenberg House is hosting a three-day career services event designed especially for you! Attend one or multiple sessions covering a range of topics, including the federal job application process, Semester in Washington program, interview tips, and advice for representing yourself professionally on social media.

A Syracuse University Career Services counselor will be available by appointment for resume review, cover letter assistance, and career advice. More details and registration link to come.

IN THE NEWS

New faces at Greenberg House

Syracuse University's Greenberg House is pleased to welcome three new staff members to serve the DC area. Meredith Smith joined the team in April as coordinator of alumni programs and looks forward to working closely with alumni, students, and parents in the region. Other recent appointments include Kristin Baione-Clymer and Skylar Sabbag '13, both serving as assistants to the executive director of regional operations. Read more.

Another exciting DC Immersion Week!

In March, 18 SU sophomores made the trek from campus to spend spring break experiencing life and work in our nation's capital and Baltimore. Sponsored by Greenberg House and Syracuse's Office of Career Services, the 5th annual DC Immersion Week exposed students to a variety of networking and community service opportunities with DC- and

Baltimore-area alumni. Learn more about Immersion Week.
